

Code of Conduct

We are dedicated to providing an inclusive dance space for everyone, regardless of dance skills, gender identity or expression, age, sexual orientation, ability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, or national origin.

In order to help us create this inclusive space, please follow this code of conduct:

- Be respectful, courteous and kind to others. Don't be a jerk. We're all here to learn. There are many right ways of dancing tango.
- No forms of harassment will be tolerated. Harassment includes inappropriate verbal comments or verbal abuse, deliberate intimidation, stalking, harassing photography or recording, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.
- If you feel unsafe or uncomfortable at any time, please find an organizer and we will make sure you are heard and that the situation is taken care of. If anyone engages in harassing or unsafe behavior, including excessive intoxication or illegal drug use, SFTX organizers reserve the right to take any action they deem appropriate, including immediate expulsion from the event without refund.
- Respect others' boundaries, especially if verbally or directly expressed, even if you're well meaning. Pay attention to non-verbal cues.
- Give suggestions constructively and sensibly; respect different points of view, preferences, and abilities.
- Save dangerous moves for somewhere else.
- Be patient with your partner and yourself, especially when struggling through challenging material.
- Please speak up! Talk to an organizer if you think something or somebody is off: somebody else might think so, too!
- Shower shortly before the event, bring an extra shirt if needed, and use minimal to no fragrance. Seriously, people appreciate it if you do this.
